QUICK STATS

IT IS ESTIMATED THAT

3.5-11%

of Australian adults identify as LGBTIQA+

61%

of LGBTIQA+ people feel accepted at work, while 35% feel accepted at social and community events

WHAT'S STRONG

Our LGBTIQA+ people are... diverse, engaged and
community-minded.

Our region has... supportive, creative communities and opportunities to connect with the arts.

OUR LGBTIQA+ PEOPLE RECOGNISE AND VALUE:

- Our vibrant community events and festivals.
- Our diverse activities and community facilities.
- Our library services and support for community groups.

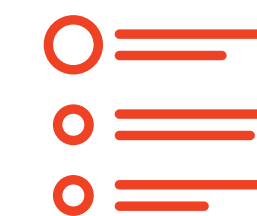

WHAT LGBTIQA+ PEOPLE WANT

- Easy access to information about community facilities, activities and groups.
- Improved transport services to enable better connection and access to services that meet community needs and contribute to staying connected.
- A well-funded, well-resourced and varied AACE program with increased state-wide festival activity in the region.
- Inclusive communities where gender and sexuality diversity is understood and supported.

OUR PRIORITIES

- Explore ways to improve the accessibility and availability of community information.
- Advocate for cross-regional public transport that provides links to Adelaide and regional centres, and work with communities to find local, viable transport solutions.
- Deliver a high quality, diverse and inclusive AACE program.
- Collaborate with others to deliver initiatives that enhance wellbeing, connection and inclusion within our community.

KEY ACTIONS

- Explore ways to improve sharing of community and Council information in digital and paper formats to encourage social connection.
- Explore community interest in developing innovative and sustainable community-led transport solutions.
- Deliver cultural programs, including a focus to secure local performances from artists involved in state festival programs.
- Collaborate to deliver education and awareness-raising initiatives that build understanding and support for gender and sexuality diversity across our community, for example by celebrating Pridevember.
